

SELF-REPORTING REQUIREMENTS

Members are reminded of their obligation to self-report certain information to the College. This is an ongoing obligation, not just annually on the renewal form. A member must self-report to COCOO if she or he:

- has been found guilty of any offence in any jurisdiction (except speeding or parking tickets);
- has been charged with any offence in any jurisdiction;
- has a finding of professional negligence and/or malpractice;
- has a finding of professional misconduct, incompetence or incapacity or any similar finding, in relation to the practice of chiropody or any other profession in any jurisdiction; and/or
- is the subject of a current investigation, inquiry or proceeding for professional misconduct, incompetence or incapacity or any similar investigation or proceeding in relation to the practice of chiropody/podiatry or any other profession in any jurisdiction. (Note: Information about College proceedings do not need to be reported.)

Failing to self-report is a serious matter and can result in referral to the Discipline Committee.
